

I would like to request that you NOT approve cell phone use on airplanes. The environment in planes is already tense and constant cell phone use would make this tense situation much worse. People are not able to apply moderation to themselves. People use them in public bathrooms when they are having private body functions. I also recently witnessed someone using a cell phone during a funeral. Please do not allow them on airlines.

Cheryl James